October 7, 1790.

The Library Company of Philadelphia,

To Zachariah Poulson, junr. Dr.

To Cash paid Joseph Greswold for hauling some trunks from Wister and Afton's Store ---- £0 " 1 " 6

To ditto paid Ditto for hauling the Property of the Company from the Carpenters' Hall ---------- 4 " 10 " 0

To ditto paid Richard Thomas for 2¾ days labor, at 5/ ℔ day ---------- 0 " 13 " 9

To ditto paid Nathaniel Baffet for 3 days labor ---------- 0 " 15 " 0

To ditto paid Cæsar Jones for 2 days labor 0 " 10 " 0

To ditto paid William —— for 1¼ days labor 0 " 6 " 3

To ditto paid a black Man, whose name I could not learn — he having neglected to return agreeably promise, ---- 0 " 1 " 10½

To ditto paid for white-washing the old Apartments in the Carpenters' Hall, ---------- 1 " 10 " 0

To ditto paid for washing the windows and floors of the Solid Apartments 0 " 10 " 0

To ditto paid for washing some of the windows and a part of the Floor of the Directors' Room in the new Building ---------- 0 " 3 " 6

£9 " 1 " 10½

Poulson junior's Account of the Expences of removing the Books to the Library
Oct. 7, 1790.

7440. F. 13

L. Poulson Jr. Acct
for removing the Books &c
to the new Building 5th Inst.
£9-1-10½ Paid
by an Order Octob. 7th 1790